

ACTIVDirections

Flipchart Recorder – Video a Flipchart

Flipchart Recorder

1. Open ACTIVstudio 2 and a new flipchart.
2. Open Power Tools and select the top option-flipchart recorder.

3. Slide the recorder to the bottom of the flipchart by dragging the blue bar at the top of the window.
4. Press record, the first red button.
5. Begin a demonstration on the board. It starts recording when you begin.
 - Write and solve a math computation problem
 - Demonstrate measuring an angle
 - Share how to use the compass tool.
6. Press stop, the second white button.
7. Rewind by selecting rewind button (fourth arrow)
8. Play back your recording by selecting Play, the third button. (arrow)

Full Screen Recorder

1. Select the flipchart recorder and select the second option – Full Screen Recorder.
2. You will be asked to name and save the recording
3. Slide the record menu down and record by pressing the red button.
4. The video is saved as an .avi file and will play in Windows Media Player.
5. Press the black square to stop the recording.
6. Press the black triangle to play the video within ACTIVstudio.
7. You can use the flipchart recorder on the desktop to record actions in other applications.

Area Screen Recorder

1. Select the flipchart recorder and select the third option – Area Screen Recorder.
2. You will be asked to define an area by dragging a defining box to the size of the area you wish to record.
3. When you press the button to record, you will be asked to name and save the recording.
4. The defined recording area will appear and you can proceed to annotate and record.
5. Press the black square to stop the recording.
6. Press the black triangle to play the recording which is an .avi file.