

Duties of the Band Officers

Drum Majors

- Maintain discipline within the band
- Must be a playing member of the band
- First student assistants to the director
- Presides over all other officers
- Performs any other necessary duties as required of a drum major
- Conducts the band in rehearsals and performances
- Supervises uniform inspection before each performance
- Oversees instruction of marching fundamentals for new band members
- Assigns service work (with director's approval) for behavior or procedure violations

Band Captain

- Collects and maintains accurate attendance reports from Lieutenants
- Maintain discipline within the band
- Must be a playing member of the band
- Second student assistant to the director
- Supervises Woodwind and Brass Lieutenants
- Assists in uniform inspection before each performance
- Assigns service work (with director's approval) for behavior or procedure violations

Guard Captain / Drumline Captain

- Collects and maintains accurate attendance reports from Lieutenants
- Maintain discipline within the section
- First student assistant to the director in charge of the color guard / drumline
- Assures that all equipment is cared for and stored properly
- Supervises Lieutenants in their section
- Supervises uniform inspection of the section before each performance
- Assigns service work (with director's approval) for behavior or procedure violations

Lieutenants

- Maintains accurate attendance reports for their sections
- Maintain discipline within their sections
- Responsible for drill instruction in their sections
- Responsible for music memorization or equipment work checks
- Work with individual students or sections when needed

Sergeants

- Provide positive role models for younger band members
- Maintain discipline within their sections
- Assists other officers as needed